

Nov: 25th (Morrie deserted while Camp lay at this Place)

Nov 25th Marched in a secret expedition 2 miles --

Nov: 26th Marched 15 miles (over Derby Creek)

Nov: 27th Marched 21 miles

Nov: 28th Marched to Springfield

Nov: 29th Marched near Xenia

Nov 30th Marched into Xenia & remained till Dec 5th

Dec: 5th Marched into Dayton and remained till

Dec: 9th Crossed the Miami River

Dec: 10th Marched to New Lexington

Dec: 12th Marched 17 miles - the object of the expedition promulgated --

Nov: 25th (Morrie deserted while Camp lay at this place)

Nov 25th Marched "in a secret expedition" 2 miles

Nov: 26th Marched 15 miles (over Derby Creek)

Nov: 27th Marched 21 miles

Nov: 28th Marched into Springfield

Nov: 29th Marched near Xenia

Nov: 30th Marched into Xenia + remained 'till Dec 5th

Dec: 5th Marched into Dayton and remained 'till

Dec: 9th Crossed the Miami River

Dec 10th Marched to New Lexington

Dec 12th Marched 17 miles the ---- of the ----- promulgated

Sunday Dec: 13th Marched to Greenville & crossed the river

Dec: 14th Marched 15 miles (into the wilderness)

Dec: 15th Marched 20 miles

Dec: 16th Marched 'till evening took supper & continued the march 'till daylight --

Dec: 17th Marched into an Indian town on the Misisinaway river about 15 miles above its junction with the Wabash - (Captured a few defenseless Indians & encamped in the Village)

Friday Dec: 18th The battle of Misisinaway fought

Sunday Dec: 13th Marched

to Greenville + crossed the river

Dec: 14th Marched 15 miles (into the wilderness)

Dec: 15th Marched 20 miles

Dec: 16th Marched 'till evening took supper + continued the March 'till daylight

Dec: 17th Marched into an Indian town on the Misisinaway river about 15 miles above its junction with the Wabash (Captured

a few defenseless Indians + encamped in the Village

Friday Dec: 18th The battle of Misisinaway fought

River & remained waiting for Boats

Sept: 23^d Embarked on board a boat
& arrived at Beaver Sept 24th

Sept 25th Arrived at Steubenville

Sept 26th Arrived at Wheeling & remained till the evening of the 27th

October 1st Arrived at Marietta in the morning & remained during the day

Oct: 6th Arrived at Gallipolis & remained till the 8th

Sunday Oct: 11th Capt. Alexandris boat struck a snag & was abandoned

Oct: 12th Arrived at Limestone

Oct: 13th Ran during the night & landed about 2 miles above Cincinnati

Oct: 14th Marched into Cincinnati, Encamped below the town & remained
'till the 28th Oct^r

Oct: 28th Marched from Cincinnati
5 miles - to "Hutchinson's"

Oct: 29th Marched to --- 12 miles

Oct: 30th Marched to Lebanon

Oct 31st Marched to Marysville

Nov: 1st Marched to Xenia

Nov: 2^d Marched to Yellow Springs

Nov 3^d Marched to Springfield

Nov- 4^h Marched to "Marble"

Nov: 5^h Marched 11 miles near ---

Nov 6th Marched into Franklinton

Nov 7th N^o Western Army & remained

River + remained waiting for
Boats

Sept: 23^d Embarked on board a boat
+ arrived at Beaver Sept 24th

Sept: 25th Arrived at Steubenville

Sept: 26 Arrived at Wheeling + remained 'till the evening of the 27th

October 1st Arrived at Marietta in the morning and remained during the ---

Oct: 6th Arrived at Gallipolis +
remained 'till the 8th

Sunday Oct: 11th Capt Alexandris (?)
boat struck a snag + was abandoned

Oct: 12th Arrived at Limestone

Oct: 13th Ran during the night +
landed about 2 miles above Cincinnati

Oct: 14th Marched into Cincinnati
Encamped below the town + remained
'till the 28th Oct^r

Oct: 28th Marched from Cincinnati
5 miles to "Hutchinson's"

Oct: 29th Marched to ---
12 miles

Oct: 30th Marched to Lebanon

Oct: 31st Marched to Marysville

Nov: 1st Marched to Xenia

Nov: 2^d Marched to Yellow Springs

Nov: 3^d Marched to Springfield

Nov: 4^h Marched to -----

Nov: 5^h Marched 11 miles near ----

Nov: 6th Marched into Franklinton

Nov 7th N^o Western Army + remained

Nov: 25th (Morrie deserted while Com^y lay at this Place)

Nov 25th Marched in a secret expedition 2 miles --

Nov: 26th Marched 15 miles (over Derby Creek)

Nov: 27th Marched 21 miles

Nov: 28th Marched to Springfield

Nov: 29th Marched near Xenia

Nov 30th Marched into Xenia & remained till Dec 5th

Dec: 5th Marched into Dayton and remained till

Dec: 9th Crossed the Miami River

Dec: 10th Marched to New Lexington

Dec: 12th Marched 17 miles - the object of the expedition promulgated --

Sunday Dec: 13th - Marched to Greenville & crossed the river

Dec: 14th - Marched 15 miles (into the wilderness)

Dec: 15th - Marched 20 miles

Dec: 16th - Marched 'till evening took supper & continued the march 'till daylight --

Dec: 17th - Marched into an Indian town on the Misisinaway river about 15 miles above its junction with the Wabash - (Captured a few defenseless Indians & encamped in the Village)

Friday Dec: 18th - The battle of Misisinaway fought

Nov: 25th (Morrie deserted while Com^y lay at this place)

Nov 25th Marched "in a secret expedition" 2 miles

Nov: 26th Marched 15 miles (over Derby Creek)

Nov: 27th Marched 21 miles

Nov: 28th Marched into Springfield

Nov: 29th Marched near Xenia

Nov: 30th Marched into Xenia + remained 'till Dec 5th

Dec: 5th Marched into Dayton and remained 'till

Dec: 9th Crossed the Miami River

Dec 10th Marched to New Lexington

Dec 12th Marched 17 miles the ---- of the ----- promulgated

Sunday Dec: 13th Marched

to Greenville + crossed the river

Dec: 14th Marched 15 miles (into the wilderness)

Dec: 15th Marched 20 miles

Dec: 16th Marched 'till evening took supper + continued the March 'till daylight

Dec: 17th Marched into an Indian town on the Misisinaway river about 15 miles above its junction with the Wabash (Captured

a few defenseless Indians + encamped in the Village

Friday Dec: 18th The battle of Misisinaway fought

Company lost one man John
Francis killed & Elliott, Dodd
Read & Chip Wounded - Total loss of the Detachment 8 killed & between 25 & 30 wounded - decamped and returned 2 miles -

December 19th Marched about 10 miles on our return to the settlements -

Sunday Dec^r 20th - marched
about 12 miles

Dec^r 21st Marched 15 miles

Dec^r 22nd During this days march met a reinforcement with a small supply of provisions -

Dec^r 23^d - Marched till within 12 miles of Greenville - met by another detachment & more supplies

Dec^r 24th Marched into Greenville

Dec^r 25th (Christmas) remained till noon & marched 7 miles

Dec^r 26th - Marched to Ains
Lorington

Dec^r 27th - Marched to Dayton
& remained till Jan^y 4th 1813 -

Jan^y 4th 1813 - Marched to Fatman
prairie 10 miles

Jan^y 5th - Marched to Springfield

Jan^y 6th Marched to Markley

Company lost one man John
Francis killed + Elliott Dodd
Dead + Chip Wounded - Total loss of the Detachment 8 killed and between 25 + 30 wounded - decamped and
returned 2 miles
Dec 19th Marched about 10 miles on our return to the
settlements
Sunday Dec^r 20th Marched
about 12 miles
Dec^r 21st Marched 15 miles
Dec^r 22nd During this days march met a reinforcements with a Small supply of provisions

Dec^r 23^d Marched 'till within 12
miles of Greenville - met by another
detachment + more supplies

Dec^r 24th Marched into Greenville

Dec^r 25th - (Christmas) remained
'till noon + marched 7 miles

Dec^r 26th Marched to -----

Dec^r 27th Marched to Dayton

+ remained 'till Jan^y 4th 1813

Jan^y 4th 1813 Marched to -----

----- 10 miles

Jan^y 5 - Marched to Springfield

Jan^y 6th Marched to Markley

Company lost one man John
Francis killed & Elliott, Dodd
Read & Chip wounded - Total loss
of the Detachment 8 killed & between 25 & 30 wounded - decamped and
returned 2 miles -

December 19th Marched about 10 miles on our return to the
settlements -

Sunday Dec^r 20th - marched
about 12 miles

Dec^r 21st Marched 15 miles

Dec^r 22nd During this days march
met a reinforcement with a Small
supply of provisions -

Dec^r 23^d - Marched till within 12
miles of Greenville - met by another
detachment & more supplies

Dec^r 24th Marched into Greenville

Dec^r 25th (Christmas) remained
till noon & marched 7 miles

Dec^r 26th - marched to Adams
Lorington

Dec^r 27th - marched to Dayton
& remained till Jan^y 4th 1813.

Jan^y 4th 1813 - Marched to Fatman
prairie 10 miles

Jan^y 5th - Marched to Springfield

Jan^y 6th Marched to Markley

Company lost one man John
Francis killed + Elliott Dodd
Dead + Chip Wounded - Total loss
of the Detachment 8 killed and between 25 + 30 wounded - decamped and
returned 2 miles
Dec 19th Marched about
10 miles on our return to the
settlements
Sunday Dec^r 20th Marched
about 12 miles
Dec^r 21st Marched 15 miles
Dec^r 22nd During this days march
met a reinforcement with a Small
supply of provisions

Dec^r 23^d Marched 'till within 12
miles of Greenville - met by another
detachment + more supplies

Dec^r 24th Marched into Greenville

Dec^r 25th - (Christmas) remained
'till noon + marched 7 miles

Dec^r 26th Marched to -----

Dec^r 27th Marched to Dayton
+ remained 'till Jan^y 4th 1813

Jan^y 4th 1813 Marched to -----
----- 10 miles

Jan^y 5 - Marched to Springfield

Jan^y 6th Marched to Markley

Jan^y 7th - Marched to Derby creek

Jan^y 8th Marched into Franklinton remained till Feb^y 3^d - Crossed the river to Columbus (Marcy deserted) Mistake left in the original copy of this page

Feb^y 4th Marched to Worthington

Feb^y 5th Marched to Delawars
A.M. Matthews joined the Comp^y

Feb^y 6th Marched 7th miles

Sunday Feb^y 7th Marched to Scioto
Block House

Feb^y 8th Marched to Upper Sandusky
& joined the Command of Col: Campbell

Feb^y 9th Marched 9 miles

Feb^y 10th - Marched as usual

(but retained the greater part of the day by a false alarm) marched 4 miles -

Feb^y 11th Marched to Artillery Block
House

Feb^y 12th Marched to within 1 mile of Hulls road

Feb^y 13th Marched 4 miles, road
almost impassible -

Sunday Feb^y 14th Remained preparing sled cars & procuring forage

Feb^y 15th Road improved by the severe frost - remained on march and made the Black Swamp

Jan^y 7th Marched to Derby Creek
Jan^y 8th Marched into Franklinton
remained 'till Feb^y 3^d - Crossed the river to Columbus (Marcy Deserted) (here follows a text in a different hand that has been crossed out-- it comprises three lines)

Feb^y 4th Marched to Worthington

Feb^y 5 Marched to Delawars

--- M Matthews joined the Comp^y

Feb^y 6th Marched 7 Miles

Sunday Feb^y 7 Marched to -----

Block House

Feb^y 8th Marched to Upper Sandusky

+ joined the Command of Col: Campbell

Feb^y 9th Marched 9 miles

Feb^y 10th Marched as usual

(but retained the greater part of the day by -----) marched 4 miles -----

Feb^y 11th Marched to artillery block
House

Feb^y 12th Marched to within 1 mile
of Hulls road

Feb^y 13th Marched 4 miles road
almost impassible

Sunday Feb^y 14th Remained preparing
sled cars + procuring forage

Feb 15th road improved by the severe frost - remained on march
and made the Black Swamp

Feb'y 16th Marched to Portage
River block House

Feb'y 17th Marched to within 4 miles of Camp Meigs & encamp^d on the Bluff of the Miami river

Feb'y 18th Marched into Camp
Meigs (H^d 2nd) situated at the foot of the Miami rapids (having separated for the regular forces)

March 5th Marched to Presquiblo 18 miles - to reinforce a detach^{mt} sent to burn the Queen Charlotte one of the enemy's vessels, supposed to be frozen up in the ice

met the detachment returning unsuccessful. & returned to Swan Creek, 10 miles

March 6th returned to Camp -

April 26th Siege of Fort Meigs
Commenced by the Enemy -

The enemy employed in erecting their Batteries 'till the 1st May when their Cannonading commenced & continued till the 5th May - a reinforcement arrived under the Command of Genl Green Clay - the U.S. Volunteer
Battalion - ordered out to cover their Entry into the Garrison, which was effected with some loss to the Kentucky Troops -

Feb'y 16th Marched to Portage
River block House

Feb'y 17th Marched to within 4 miles of Camp Meigs + encamped on the Bluff of the Miami river

Feb'y 18th Marched into Camp
Meigs (H^d 2nd) situated at the
foot of the Miami rapids

(having separated for the regular forces)

March 5th Marched into Presqui--le 18 miles - to reinforce a detach ment to burn the Queen Charlotte
one of the enemys vessels supposed
to be frozen up in the ice

met the detachment returning
unsuccessful + returned to Swan
Creek, 10 miles

March 6th returned to Camp

April 26th Siege of Fort Meigs
Commenced by the Enemy -

The enemy employed in erecting two Batteries 'till the 1st May when their
Cannonading commenced + continued
'till the 5th May - a reinforcement
arrived under the command of
Genl Green Clay - the U.S. Volunteer
Battalion - ordered out to cover
their Entry into the Garrison which
was effected with some loss to the,
Kentucky Troops.

On the same day a general sortie made by the U.S. Vol: Batt: and several companies of the 17th & 19th Reg^t of U.S. Infy Commanded by Col John Miller - resulting in the capture of about 42 of ^{the} enemies Reg^t troops & the route of his Indian Allies, with a considerable loss on the part of the American troops in killed & wounded -

Loss of the Pitts^g Blues two killed
James Newman & M Richardson
& five wounded Willock, Bop,
Williams, Dobbins & Wahrmanoff.

The attack made at the same time by a detachment of Gen^l

On the same day a general sortie march led by the U.S. Vol: Batt: and several companies of the 17th and 19th Reg^t of U.S. Infantry Commanded by Col John Miller - resulting in the Capture of about 42 of the enemies Reg^l Troops
+ the route of his Indian Allies, with a considerable loss in the part of the American troops in
killed + wounded -
loss of the Pitts^g Blues two killed
James Newman + M Richardson
- five wounded Willock, Bop,
Williams, Dobbins + Wahrmanoff
The attack made at the ---- twice by a detachment of -----

Ken^y Militia Commanded by Col. Dudley on the enemy's batteries on the opposite ^{side} of the river terminated in the complete route & capture of that detachment, and the death of the comp^y officer -

The enemy quit & on the 10th May the siege declared to be raised - 11th May Major Balls squadron moved off. Gen^l Harrison left for the settlements

June 20th 1813 Rec^d information of an intended attack - by the arrival of a Kentuckian & Canadian from the enemy's quarters - Expresses despatched

----- Ken^y Militia Commanded
by Col. Dudley on the enemys
batteries on the opposite side of the river
terminated in the complete route
+ capture of that detachment and
the death of the comp^y officer -

The enemy quit + on the 10th May
the siege declared to be raised - 11th May Major Balls squadron
moved off Gen^l Harrison left
for the settlements

June 20th 1813 Rec^d information of
an intended attack -- by the arrival
of a Kentuckian + Canadian from the enemys quarters- ----- and preparations made the reception of the enemy - shortly after this Col: Johnson's Regt of Heavy Mounted men arrived & soon after Gen Harrison arrived with a detachment of the 24th Infy Commanded by Col Anderson preparations for defence of the post cont - Gen Harrison left Camp again - Gen Green Clay in Command -

July 8th Capt Butler returned to the Company (having been absent for the recovery of his health) -

July 21st The picket guard attacked by the enemies Indians - & several men killed & captured - Lieut Mounty arrived in Camp from Portage river blockhouse with 9 men - pursued on his way by Indians & the Camp invested,

July 22^d The enemy quits

July 23^d - a detachment of 100 men under Capt Armstrong of the 24th Infy employed reconnoitring the enemy

July 24th quiet

July 25th - an Express arrived - the Camp alarmed by the firing of small arms - a stratagem

and preparations made the
reception of the enemy - Shortly
after this Col: Johnson's Regt of Ken^y Mounted Men arrived + soon after Gen^l Harrison arrived with a detachment of the 24th Inf^y
Commanded by Col. Anderson preparations for defense of the post cont^d - Gen^l Harrison left camp again - Gen^l Green Clay
in Command

July 8th Cap^t Butler returned
to the Company (having been
absent for the recovery of his
health) -

July 21st the picket guard attacked by teh enemies Indians -
+ several men killed + captured - Lieut ----- arrived in Camp
from Portage river block house with 9 men - ----- on his way by Indians the Camp in--ted,
July 22^d the enemy quits
July 23^d a detachment of 100 men
under Cap^t Armstrong of the 24th Inf^y employed reconnoitring the emeny
July 24th quiet
July 25th an Express arrived -
the Camp alarmed by the firing of ---- Army a stratagie of the Indians (representing the fights of two bodies of men at a distance and approaching the garrison) intended to draw out a portion of the American troops in the fort.

26th & 27th July quiet & on the 28th seen descending the river - July 30th a reconnoitring party detached - reported the enemy had retired & the siege raised

Aug^t 18th - The Pittsburg Blues received orders to march to Camp Seneca

Aug^t 20th Marched to Portage river -

August 21st Marched into
Camp Seneca

August 28th Marched to "Lower
Sandusky" Fort Stevenson

Aug^t 30th Sailed for Cleveland and arrived at Vermillion river

September 1st arrived at Cleveland -

Sept: 3^d Marched for Brown & arrived on the 7th remained on the 8th and on the 9th Marched to Davis tavern 4 miles from Pittsburg -

Sept 10th Marched into

of the Indians (representing the
fights of two bodies of men at a
distance and approaching the
garrison) intended to draw out
a portion of the American Troops
in the fort.

26th + 27th July quiet + on the 28th seen descending the river
July 30th a reconnoitring party
detached - reported the Enemy
had retired + the siege raised

Aug^t 18th The Pittsburg Blues
received orders to March to
Camp Seneca

Aug^t 20th Marched to
Portage River

August 21st Marched into
Camp Seneca

August 28th Marched to "Lower
Sandusky" Fort Stevenson

Aug^t 30th Sailed for Cleveland
and arrived at Vermillion river

September 1st arrived at Cleveland -

Sep^t 3^d Marched for B-----

+ arrived on the 7th remained
on the 8th and on the 9th

Marched to Davis tavern 4
miles from Pittsburg

Sep^t 10th Marched into Pittsburgh, and Discharged having completed a tour of 12 months

Service -

Pittsburg and Discharged

having completed a tour of 12 months

Service -

Names of the members of the Pitts^g Blues

Capt: Butler ✓
Lieut: Mager ✓
Ensign: Irwin ✓
Travillo
Millock
Patterson
Pratt
Pollard ✓
Park
Parker ✓
Pentland ✓
I Davis
I D Davis
Elliott
English
McMasters
Robinson
Wilkins
Haven
Allison

Names of the Members of the Pitts^g Blues

Capt: Butler
Lieut: Mager
Ensign: Irwin
----illo
Millock
Patterson
Pratt
Pollance
Park
Parker
Pentland
I Davis
I D Davis
Elliott
English
Mc Masters
Robinson
Wilkins
Haven
Allison

Graham ✓

Chess

Mc Fall

Maxwell

Matthews

Mc Clannay

Mc Giffin

Deal

Boss

Francis killed in action 18 Dec 1812

d'Orton

Wahrmanoff

Newman killed in action 5 May 1813

Richardson

Dodd died in service

Mc Kee Do Do

Watt

Dremer

Dobbins

Thompson

Graham

Chess

Mc Fall

Maxwell

Matthews

Mc -----

Mc Giffin (?)

Deal BOSS

Francis Killed in action 18 Dec^r 1812

d'Orton "

Wahrmanoff "

Newman killed in action 5 May 1813

Richardson Do Do

Dodd Died in service

Mc Kee Do Do

Watt

Dremer (?)

Dobbins

Thompson

Names Continued

Read
 Neville
 Vernon
 Weidner
 Swift
 Hull
 Lewis
 McNeal
 Fairfield
 Jones
 Williams
 Barney
 Morrie deserted from Franklinton
 Marcy ~~deserted~~

Several of the Pitts^g Blues & Petersburg Volunteers were in Fort Stephenson at Sandusky (when it was so gallantly defended by Capt Geo. Croghan) & aided in manning the 6 pdr. which so effectively contributed to the glorious result of that action

Names Continued

Read
 Neville
 Vernon (?)
 Weidner (?)
 Swiss
 Hull
 Lewis
 McNeal
 Fairfield
 Jones
 Williams
 Barney (?)
 Morrie deserted from Franklinton Marcy deserted- (the words deserted ----- were crossed out)

Several of teh Pitts^g Blues + Petersburg Volunteers were
 in Fort Stephenson at Sandusky
 (when it was so gallantly def ended by Capt --- Croghan) + aided in ----- the ----- which so effectively contributed to the glorious
 result of that action

March of the Pittsburgh Blues
Charles Pentland

March of the Pittsburgh Blues performing a tour of 12 months services in the service of the United States - taken from a journal kept during the period by Ch^s Pentland, a member of the Company
Encamped on "Grants Hill"
September 10th 1812
Decamped Sunday Sept 20th 1812 under orders to join the North Western Army. Marched
over the Allegheny river Sept 21st - Marched to the

M-----
--- of the Pittsburg Blues whilst preforming a tour of 12 months services in the service of the United States taken from a journal
kept during the period by Ch^s Pentlands (?) a member of the Company

Encamped on "Grants Hill"
Sept 11th 1812
Decamped Sunday Sept 20th 1812
----- ---- to join the North Western Army. Marched ----
over the Allegheny river
Sept: 21st Marched to the -----